Congress MP Ravneet Singh Bittu joins BJP

Singh Bittu, Congress MP from Ludhiana, on Tuesday joined Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) ahead of Lok Sabha elections. Ravneet Singh Bittu represented the Anandpur Sahib Lok Sabha constituency in Punjab from 2009 to 2014. In the 2009 Lok Sabha polls, Bittu defeated Shiromani Akali Dal's (SAD) Dr Daljit Singh Cheema with a margin of 67,204 votes

Ravneet Singh Bittu had previously served as the leader of Congress in Lok Sabha from March to July 2021. Bittu was elected to the Lok Sabha, from Ludhiana in 2014, 2019 Assembly elections and earlier from Anandpur Sahib in 2009. In January 2021, he was assaulted at the Singhu border during a 'Jan Sansad' program. In the 2014 Lok Sabha Elections, Bittu defeated Aam Aadmi Party's (AAP) Harvinder Singh Phoolka with a margin of 19,709

the constituency.

AAP protests in Delhi: Harjot

Bains, Somnath Bharti detained BJP demands Delhi CM resignation

AGENCY NEW DELHI, MAR 26

Punjab Minister Harjot Singh Bains and Somnath Bharti were among the scores of AAP members detained by police on Tuesday as they gathered at the Patel Chowk here to protest against the arrest of Delhi Chief Minister

Arvind Kejriwal. Raising slogans of "Inquilab Zindabad" and "Kejriwal Zindabad", Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) workers and leaders reached the area's metro station in groups, with the party calling for a march to Prime Minister Narendra Modi's residence on Lok Kalyan Marg for a "gherao"

Prohibitory orders under section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure are imposed in the area and police cannot allow anyone to gath er, a senior officer said and added that in view of this, "we have to clear this area" "We will not allow anybody to gather here," he said.

BJP leader Manjinder Singh Sirsa said, "They want to divert the attention from the alcohol scam. They keep saying that they are getting orders (from jail)... Arvind Kejriwal is doing drama from the ED custody. I have given a written complaint to the LG and ED director that action should be taken on the false letter that they had produced... The way gangsters and extortionists operate gangs from jail, they want to operate the CM office... A corrupt like Arvind Kejriwal cannot be the CM. He has to resign.

In view of the call by the

Kejriwal issues another order from ED's custody

NEW DELHI: Delhi Chief Minister and Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) convener Arvind Kejriwal has issued a second order for its government's health department to be in the custody of the Enforcement Directorate (ED), AAP Leader Saurabh Bhardwaj said on Tuesday.

Addressing a press conference here, Delhi Health Minister Bhardwaj said, "CM Arvind Kejriwal is worried about the healthcare of the state even while being under ED's custody. The CM issued a direction to me stating that he received information about the unavailability of medicines at some Mohalla clinics and that people are facing difficulties in the tests carried out at the clinics."

Aam Aadmi Party for a 'gherao' at Prime Minister Narendra Modi's residence to reigster their protest, Paramilitary personnel in anti-riot gear have been deployed on the road leading to the prime minister's residence and outside the Patel Chowk metro

Deputy Commissioner of Police, Devesh Kumar Mahla said, "No permission has been granted (to AAP for protest). We have made sufficient deployment at the PM residence and Patel Chowk metro station to maintain law and order. No march or demonstration will be allowed. No routes diversions done.

The Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC) announced that the Lok Kalyan Marg Metro Station will continue to remain closed until further notice in view of the Aam Adami Party's call to 'gherao' of Prime Minister residence against the arrest of Arvind Kejriwal.

According to the DMRC, gate no 3 of Patel Chowk Metro Station and gate no 5 of Central Secretariat Metro Station will also remain closed till further notice.

A rally will be organised by the INDIA bloc on March 31 against the arrest of Arvind Kejriwal by the Enforcement Directorate.

BJP to contest LS polls alone in Punjab: Sunil Jakhar

Akali Dal (SAD).

BJP on Tuesday decided to contest the upcoming Lok Sabha elections in Punjab alone and would not form an alliance with the Shiromani

The announcement was made by the State Party President Sunil Jakhar, who said the party would contest the Lok Sabha election

"This decision was taken based on the opinion of the people and party workers in the state. The decision was taken keeping in mind the welfare of farmers and businessmen," Jakhar said in a post on X. Jakhar said under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the last 10 years, farmers in Punjab have received MSP for their crops within the week.

"The Kartarpur corridor, for which people have been requesting for decades, was also made possible under PM Modi because of the blessings of Waheguru," the Punjab BJP chief further said.

Polling for 13 seats in Punjab will be held on June 1. Pun-jab has a total of 13 Lok Sabha constituencies.

The key reason behind the two parties not joining hands appears to be a mismatch in their core ideological planks. The Akali Dal's panthic agenda to reach out to Sikhs appears to clash with the BJP's nationalist posturing. Also, unlike in 1996, when the Akali Dal joined hands with BJP for an alliance that lasted over two decades, the Sukhbir Singh Badal-led party set conditions for another tie-up.

that the Centre must honour its commitment to release all Sikh prisoners who had completed their terms and fulfil all promises made to farmers.

'The party will continue to put principles above politics and it will never deviate from its historic role as a champion of the interests of Khalsa Panth, all minorities as well as all Punjabis," the resolution said. "As the sole representatives of the Sikhs and of all Punjabis, the party will continue its fight for more powers and genuine autonomy to the states," it added. Doubling down on its support to farmers protest-ing against the Centre, which had prompted Akali Dal to exit the NDA in 2020, the res olution said Akali Dal will continue to champion the cause of farmers and farm la-bourers. "SAD is the largest representative democratic organization of the farmers and has always been in the forefront of fighting for their interests," it said.

Every woman deserves dignity: Kangana on row over Cong leaders derogatory comments

CHANDIGARH/NEW DELHI, MAR 26

Every woman, irrespective of her background and profession, deserves dignity, actor Kangana Ranaut said on Tuesday as Congress leaders' comments on Mandi from where she is contesting the Lok Sabha elections snowballed into a massive political row.

Ranaut, who makes her political debut as a BJP candidate from Mandi in Himachal Pradesh, said she was particularly pained by the derogatory comments on the constituency that is often referred to as "Chhota Kashi" the world over.

The Congress has been in the crosshairs after demeaning remarks on Ranaut and Mandi were posted on the so-cial media handles of its leaders Supriva Shrinate and H S

Ahir.
"Whatever be the profession of a woman, be it a teacher, actress, journalist, politician or a sex worker, all of them deserve dignity. I'm pained especially because of the deplorable comments made about Mandi... All of us who come from Mandi have been hurt by the comments," Ranaut told reporters outside the Chandigarh air-

Asked whether she plans to take any action against the two Congress leaders the "Queen" actor, often in the news for her controversial comments on a range of issues, said she had been called to Delhi by BJP president J P Nadda and would respond only after meeting him.

'I have to maintain the dignity of the party. I can't walk before it. I have to walk with them and follow their instructions, the 37-year-old said.

A host of BJP leaders, including Bansuri Swaraj, Amit Malviya and former Himachal Pradesh chief minister Jai Ram Thakur, spoke up on the issue.

Congress spokesperson Shrinate said in her defence on Monday, when the controversy erupted, that many people have access to her Facebook and Instagram accounts and one of them made the inappro-

Excise policy case: BRS leader Kavitha remanded in judicial custody

NEW DELHI: Enforcement Directorate custody of K Kavitha will be extended to April 9, a Delhi court said Tuesday, accepting the agency's request to keep the BRS leader in lock-up for 15 additional days.

Ms Kavitha was arrested March 15 in connection with the alleged liquor policy scam that has engulfed the Aam Aadmi Party, which is in power in the national capital; a week after her arrest, Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejri wal was also taken into custody by the probe agency. Last week the trial court allowed the ED to retain custody of Ms Kavitha for five more days. That extension - during which the agency said she was confronted with the statements of four people and a forensic report of data extracted from her mobile phone - expires today.

The ED has accused Ms Kavitha - the daughter of ex-Telangana Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao - of being a key member of the 'South Group' that allegedly paid the AAP a bribe of ₹ 100 crore in exchange for liquor licenses under the Delhi government's nowscrapped policy.

The ED also believes the AAP used this money to fund its Goa

Deputy Chief Whip Kewal Singh Pathania has advised BJP leaders to reflect on the advice of former Chief Minister Shanta Kumar. He said that the statement of senior BJP leader Shanta Kumar is absolutely right that merely building Ram temple is not enough, but we have to adopt the ideals of Lord Ram in life. He said that forgetting the ideals of Lord Ram, they are conspiring to grab power by adopting money power and other tactics. BJP neither cares about morality nor about the ideals of Lord Ram, rather their leaders are trapped in power. Kewal Singh Pathania said that Ram is Maryada Purushottam, whereas BJP leaders are bent on subverting dignity and doing low level politics. He said that joining of six Congress rebels and three independents into BJP confirms that leaders of Himachal BJP are architects of the conspiracies to topple the government. He said that today BJP leaders are celebrating the addition of 9 former MLAs to their party, putting on skits, but even after seeing the spark burning in their party, they are ignoring it. BJP leaders are also forgetting that in democracy, public welfare is supreme. Ultimately everyone will have to go to the public court and the voters of the state are watching this crude joke on democracy. He said that the voters of the state are ready to teach a lesson to the BJP and will not tolerate any insult to the mandate.Deputy Chief Whip Kewal Singh Pathania said that the Congress rebels have today sat in the lap of the BJP, which has pushed the future of lakhs of youth of the state into darkness. During the tenure of the previous BJP government, papers were auctioned in Himachal Pradesh Staff Selection Commission and police recruitment paper leaked. Even today BJP leaders are trying to stop the pension of Rs 1500 given to women. BJP is not only antiyouth and anti-women, but also anti-Himachal. He said that what will happen to the public if the rebel leaders do not belong to the Congress party like their mother. Today, he has joined BJP as a traitor to the party just to achieve his own ends. He said that the strength of Congress is the people of the state and the full blessings of the people are with the Congress government led by Chief Minister Thakur Sukhwinder Singh Sukhu.

Politics heated up due to joining of nine MLAs in BJP, internal strife in BJP intensified

DHARAMSHALA: With six Congress MLAs and three Azad MLAs joining the BJP, internal politics has heated up among the BJP leaders and workers in all the nine assembly constituencies. The situation seems to be worsening after BJP offered tickets to all these MLAs to contest elections. gy student, travelling on a sleeper train from Moscow to Murmansk, finds that the only other occupant of her compartment is a boorish Russian miner. Coarse and the worse for drink, the man is chatty and intrusive, and she dreads the long journey ahead of them. But as time passes, the distance between them. shrinks and they forge an unlikely kinship. In an evocaabandon in the snow outside. When we think of public transport, we tend to regard it as vehicles that get us from one place to another. But public transport is also a space that brings people from diverse social backgrounds into close contact. If the city is a community of strangers, it is in shared modes of transport that this co-mingling becomes most visible. Whenever I am in a new city, the most enjoyable way for me to get to know it is to take a bus. It is a very telling way of observing how people relate to fellow passengers. Such as the time when two white, male co-passengers on the metro in Newcastle in England conversed loudly about how the influx of im-migrants has ruined the culture of the region. Or just how commonplace women getting groped on trains in Tokyo seems to be. Or how frequently the seat next to darkerskinned men would remain vacant on buses in Singa-

There are, however, also other kinds of encounters on public transport that may be more affirming. A friend from Afghanistan who lives in Rotterdam recounted to me with great joy his interactions with a Nigerian taxi driver. Surprised to find the driver enthusiastically listening to Bollywood songs, he began chatting with him about Hindi cinema and learnt that Bollywood has been immensely popular in Nigeria since the 1950s. This conversation inspired my friend to read up on the travels of Bollywood to Africa.

In Indian cities, the autorickshaw is frequently perceived to be the very image of unruliness. One afternoon in Calcutta, as I was travelling in an autorickshaw, it slowed down near a Montessori school. A middle-class woman in her early thirties boarded the autorickshaw with her daughter. The woman was speaking loudly to her daughter, asking the child why she cried all day in school. This chatter generated a great deal of amused interest among the driver and the passengers and they joined in the conversation. The atmosphere in the vehicle was one of affectionate banter.

Russian President Vladimir Putin acknowledged for the first time that "radical Islamists" were responsible for last week's attack on a concert hall outside Moscow. However, he suggested that Ukraine was also somehow involved, Al Jazeera reported.

Russian authorities have detained 11 people in connection with the March 22 attack on Crocus City Hall.

In a televised meeting on Monday, Putin said, "We know that the crime was committed by the hands of radical Islamists, whose ideology the Islamic world itself has been fighting for centuries.

'This atrocity may be just a link in a whole series of attempts by those who have been at war with our country since 2014 with the hands of the neo-Nazi Kyiv regime," he said, referring to Ukraine, according to Al Jazeera report.

Putin stressed that it was necessary to respond to that question. He asked, "Of course, it is necessary to answer the question, 'Why after committing the crime the terrorists tried to go to Ukraine?' Who was waiting for them there?" Putin said the planned terrorist attack hoped to sow panic but it was met with

He even refused to comment on reports that the US warned authorities in Moscow on March 7 about a possible attack and said that any such intelligence is confiden-

On Sunday, a Moscow court charged four men with carrying out a "terrorist" attack. At their court appearance, the gunmen showed signs of being severely beaten.

The four suspects, named by Russian authorities as Dalerdzhon Mirzovev. Saidakrami Rachabalizodu, Shamsidin Fariduni and Muhammadsobir Favzov were tried in Basmanny Court in Moscow.

All four are to be held in detention until at least May 22, the court said. One of the men charged with committing the terror attack is a Tajik national, TASS reported. All four are from Tajikistan and have been in Russia on either temporary or expired visas, CNN reported.

Russian Prime Minister Mikhail Mishustin said the investigation is being conducted. However, he promised that "the perpetrators will be punished. They do not deserve mercy.

Former Russian President Dmitry Medvedev, who now serves as deputy head of Russia's Security Council, asked authorities to "kill them all.

According to the Russian Investigative Committee, a total of 137 people died in the March 22 terror attack at the Crocus City Hall music venue and the death toll is likely to go up further. The Moscow Region Health Ministry reported 182 people injured.A total of 11 people involved in the attack were apprehended, including four suspected attackers, who sought to flee towards the Ukrainian border, TASS report

During his televised address, Russian President Vladimir Putin said that Ukraine prepared a "window" for the attackers to cross the border and vowed to identify and punish everyone behind the attack. He also declared March 24 a national mourning day.

Putin had said, "We will investigate this terrorist attack and we already have some results. All the four perpetrators, who were directly involved who were gunning people down, killing people.

They were found and apprehended. They tried to escape. They were moving towards the border with Ukraine and we have data that suggests that they were about to be moved towards the territory of Ukraine by those in Ukraine," he added.

The concert venue, with an estimated capacity of 7.500, was almost full when the terrorists struck and the assault took place ahead of a performance by the Russian rock band Picnic, RT news agency reported earlier.

According to the mobile phone footage and eyewitness accounts, at least five gunmen wearing military-style gear and carrying assault rifles first opened fire at unarmed security guards at the main entrance to the venue.

They then proceeded to shoot indiscriminately at the fleeing crowd of panicked visitors. Once the terrorists reached the concert hall, they appeared to set fire to rows of chairs inside, with the blaze quickly engulfing much of the building, including its roof.

According to a CNN report, the US warned Moscow that ISIS terrorists were determined to target Russia in the days be fore assailants stormed Crocus City Hall in an attack that killed scores of people, but Vladimir Putin rejected the advice, calling it "provocative.'

US National Security Council spokesperson Adrienne Watson said the US government had "shared this information with Russian authorities in accordance with its longstanding 'duty to warn'

White House "perplexed" after Netanyahu cancels Israeli delegation's visit to US

hite House National Security Communications Advisor John Kirby said that they are "perplexed" by Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's decision to cancel Israeli delegation's visit to the US.

Addressing a press briefing on Monday, Kirby said that the Israeli Prime Minister's Office appears to indicate that the US has ministration has not changed its approach.

When asked about US President Joe Biden's reaction to Netanyahu's decision Kirby said, "We're kind of perplexed by this. A couple of points that need to be stated and, in fact, restated. Number one, it's a nonbinding resolution. So, there's no impact at all on Israel and Israel's ability to continue to go after Hamas. Number two, as I said in my opening statement, it does not represent a change at all in our policy.'

"It's very consistent with everything that we've been saying we want to get done here. And we get to decide what our policy is. The prime minister's office seems to be indicating through public statements that we somehow changed here

We haven't. And we get to decide what -- what our policy is. It seems like the prime minister's office is choosing to create a perception of daylight here when they don't need to do that. So, again, no change in our policy," he added. Kirby's statement comes after Netanyahu on Monday cancelled a high-stakes delegation visit to Washington after the US refused to veto a United Nations Security Council resolution calling for an immediate ceasefire in Gaza during

In a statement, Netanyahu's office called the US abstention "a clear departure from the consistent position of the  $\bar{\mbox{U}}\mbox{nited}$ States at the Security Council since the beginning of the war.

The statement released by Netanyahu's office reads, "The United States has abandoned its policy in the UN today." "In light of the change in the US position, Prime Minister Netanyahu decided that the delegation will remain in Israel." it added.

The delegation was expected to arrive in the US this week to discuss the war in Gaza, as Israeli forces are threatening to enter the southern Gaza city of Rafah, a refugee camp where more than a million Palestinians are sheltering from the war The Hill reported.

Israeli Defence Minister Yoav Gallant is in Washington and is expected to meet with his US counterpart Lloyd Austin

Rising prices poses challenges in Pakistan

mid the rising inflation in Pakistan, the common people celebrating the month of Ramzan are facing serious financial burdens, making it difficult for them to celebrate the festival Common people in Pakistan's Karachi demanded relief from the government to control inflation. Azmat, a customer at a major market in Karachi, said, "Ramzan may be an auspicious occasion for Muslims but such high inflation is a problem for everyone. Everyone gets affected, it is better that the government set up subsidised shops where people can buy cheaper food and other basic items. But up till now, we have seen no such shop.'

Some local shopkeepers and businessmen have started a joint effort to give relief to the common people. Pointing out a private stall set up by businessmen under the name of the Social Responsibility Organisation (SRO) to distribute cheaper fruits and vegetables to the public, Azmat further mentioned that "The government must start such an initiative so that they can celebrate Ramzan. We can purchase bananas for around PKR 80 but in general shops, this still remains around PKR 150 per dozen, which is sometimes out of our reach as other expenses are also to be managed" Another consumer, Hanif also highlighted the problem of hoarding where big businessmen stockpile necessary items in large quantities to manipulate the prices in the open market. "There is a weird pattern. A food item that was available for half the price just before Ramzan now costs two folds, how is this possible? Not just edible items but everything is costly. I don't feel that the conditions will be better, any time soon. As inflation is not just in food items but everything in the market is costly"

A volunteer at the SRO, Abdul Rehman Qureshi, stated, "We try and provide everything at least PKR 25 lower than the market price. This is a joint initiative from us businessmen. This is to provide relief to the common people, as they are the ones who are most affected by these high prices. It is high time that the government starts acting and work towards providing relief to the common people.' Another volunteer at the SRO stated, "We are trying our best to provide relief to the people as they are getting nothing from the people in power. People are purchasing from us as we are providing food items a bit cheaper than the main market. But there is still a section of society who earn very less in a day we are also trying to support them. We have been selling bananas that break during transit almost free, but the poor people are forced to buy even that. As they have to feed their families".
